

Wine tourism in motorhome

Enjoy Caravaning

Enjoying wine tourism is a pleasure and if you can do it with your motorhome, two passions come together in a unique experience. Waking up among the vineyards and under the stillness of nature is a perfect plan to enjoy with family and friends that we put at your disposal. The Barón d'Alba winery offers you the possibility of spending the day in an exceptional environment with the Penyagolosa massif in the background and the tradition and culture of the well-known Pelegrins de les Useres pilgrimage. You can purchase a wide variety of wines from the Clos d'Esgarracordes brand in the store, as well as visit the vineyards, the barrel rooms and the possibility of tasting and tasting local cuisine. The possibility of staying overnight is free, but it is advisable to check availability, as well as book activities in advance. Come see our work, live an adventure or simply disconnect.
